

Public Information Event

Tuesday, 10 October 2017

Convention Centre Dublin

Spencer Dock, N Wall, Quay, Dublin, Ireland

Your Spine can be a pain! How and Why

14:00	Introduction and chair Mr John McCabe. How the spine works and what can go wrong. History and Pathophysiology. Mr Andrew O'Brian, Consultant orthopaedic surgeon, Belfast.
14:20	Why does the spine become crooked and what can be done about it (kyphosis and scoliosis) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mr Pat Kiely, Consultant Orthopaedic surgeon, Dublin
14:50	Why have I a sore back or neck <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Neck, David O'Brian, consultant Neurosurgeon, Dublin - Low back, Mark Dolan, consultant Orthopaedic surgeon, Cork
15:10	Can I do anything to cure my spinal pain, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Marie Elaine Grant, Specialist Member of Irish Society of Chartered Physiotherapists, Physiotherapist to the IOC (International Olympic com) Medical Commission, Member of the Institute of Health and Sport, University College Dublin
15:30	Break
15:50	Chairman, Mr Frank Dowling New Advances in the Operative Treatment of Spinal Pain David O'Brian consultant Neurosurgeon, Dublin Mr John McCabe, consultant orthopaedic surgeon, Galway
16:20	The broken spine <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Fractures, Mr Keith Synnott, Consultant Orthopaedic surgeon, Dublin - Spinal Sport Injuries, Mr Niall Eames Consultant Orthopaedic surgeon, Belfast.
17:00	Concluding Remarks Chairmen
17:05	Introduction to the societies' patient information platform: Patient Line Tamar Pincus, Chair of the Patient Line Committee